

Why PuzzleHR?

It's a fact, changing Federal and State labor regulations puts a tremendous strain on business leaders. Without help, effectively balancing compliance with recruiting, retaining and motivating a workforce to grow a company is nearly impossible.

The Puzzle team is made up of veteran industry executives with decades of experience in Human Resource Outsourcing who realized that there was no real solution in the marketplace to provide scalable HR infrastructure services to growing companies. We developed PuzzleHR to provide every company with precisely the support they need.

We leverage our proprietary diagnostic tool to work with our clients to develop a custom suite of services that close the HR gaps in their business. Our White Glove Human Resource Solutions are available to businesses of all sizes and industry types across the United States. The PuzzleHR Solution is the most robust Managed Human Resource Solution in the market today.

PuzzleHR helps companies:

Remain in compliance with government regulations no matter location or industry.

Get the most out of their current vendor relationships.

Become the Employer of Choice by helping leadership recruit, lead and retain the best talent available.

Create Scalable internal processes to prepare for future growth.

At PuzzleHR we solve the Human Resources puzzle.
